

JAPAN TO MAKE FIGHT BUT WILL YIELD FINALLY
Officials Believe Nation
Will Accept Hughes
Plan in End.

COUNTRY PLEASED
Washington, Nov. 28.—From official sources it was learned today that while Japan's naval experts are prepared to insist strongly upon being allowed a 70 per cent navy, instead of the 60 per cent laid down by the Hughes program, they nevertheless are prepared to accept the American figures upon a condition.

This condition is that all fortifications in the Pacific be dismantled.

Washington, Nov. 28.—"Japan will make a stiff fight but in the end she will yield."

This expression from a high ranking naval authority accurately reflected today the opinion held by American officials and foreign diplomats that this, the third week of the armament conference, will see Japan's acceptance of the 5-5-3 capital ship ratio laid down in the American program.

It has been known for several days that the Japanese delegation here is under instructions from Tokyo to hold out strongly for an increase in the ratio to 10-10-7. It is understood that Japan will formally lay such a proposition before the powers at the first meeting of the naval committees.

The absolute rejection of the Japanese proposal by the American authorities is assured. American experts feel that Japan has been treated liberally in the 5-5-3 ratio. They point out that the three-to-five program was decided upon only after many experts had insisted that Japan's allowance of capital ships be placed at fifty percent instead of 60.

The opinion also is held by some American officials that Japan secretly is rather pleased by the ratio of three-to-five and that she is making a fight on it with the idea that by seeming to yield reluctantly she may be able to get concessions further on in the conference, perhaps in the matter of auxiliary ships.

It can be stated authoritatively that British experts are one with the Americans in the capital ship ratio.

While American officials deprecate any suggestion of a split in the conference, it can be stated authoritatively that the American delegation is willing to see the conference stand or fall on the issue of Japan's acceptance.

Until the capital ship issue is settled the experts are not concerning themselves with the objections raised by both Japan and England with regard to auxiliary ships such as submarines, light cruisers and airplane carriers. The big ships form the hub of the whole Hughes program and until an agreement is reached on these the experts are giving little thought to the other craft. One thing at a time is their motto.

It is not likely that the show down will come until late in the week. The Japanese have received from Tokyo a great quantity of technical and other data, which will first have to be laid before the experts of other powers for examination. This will take considerable time "and all to no purpose," said one American expert today.

It is considered probable that an open session of the conference will be arranged when Japan officially accepts the program. The belief is expressed that the Japs will ask an open session to announce their adherence to the American proposals and at the same time give a public explanation of the reasons for their protracted insistence upon a capital ship increase.

Unless there is such a session arranged, it seemed improbable that there will be another plenary session soon. Far eastern affairs are still in the committee stage and are likely to remain so for some time. Chinese post office and foreign courts are not objects that lend themselves to discussions in which the public can get enthusiastically excited.

The Japanese may carry one feature of their sub program to a point where it may possibly endanger the conference. This concerns the Mutsu, the latest of their great battleships, which has been constructed under the eight and eight program. The delegation here is insistent that Japan be allowed to retain the Mutsu and in this they have the solid backing of Japanese officialdom and public opinion.

Arbuckle to Break His Silence of Nearly Three Months

San Francisco, Nov. 28.—Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle broke a three months' enforced silence today and told for the first time on the witness stand the story of what happened in room 1218 of the St. Francis hotel where the state charges he indicted injuries that caused the death of Virginia Rappe. His story was a blanket denial of any wrong doing. His words came like a torrent long dammed up in response to the skillful questions of his chief of counsel, Gavin McNab, who drew out the story in a careful sequence.

Arbuckle said he found Miss Rappe vomiting on the floor of the bathroom of 1219 and carried her to a bed. He said he ministered to her and that while he went to get a glass of water she fell between the two beds. He again placed her on a bed and then called the other women of the party to "stop her from tearing her clothes."

Arbuckle denied that Virginia Rappe had accused him in any way that he heard, and maintained that all that he had done in any way was to help the unfortunate girl. His direct examination required just thirty minutes.

San Francisco, Nov. 28.—A silence unbroken for nearly three months was to end this afternoon when Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle, to date a mute spectator to the tragic drama, which involves his future freedom and life work, was again to take the center of the stage.

His trial for manslaughter was to reach its climax through his own testimony as to what happened behind the locked doors of room 1218 of the St. Francis hotel, at his gay Labor Day party.

There was a remote possibility that he might not have an opportunity to testify. A last minute change of mind on the part of his chief counsel Gavin McNab, may result in the case closing without his name being called. But this was unlikely.

"The motion picture interests who are financing 'Fatty's' fight for liberty desire not only an acquittal but also his rehabilitation in public favor," said one close observer of the case. "They expect Arbuckle to take the stand and explain clearly to the public just what happened in the room no matter how unpleasant a cross examination he may face."

Second in interest to Arbuckle's appearance on the stand was the action of the state in issuing a subpoena for Louise Glaum, noted motion picture star and half a dozen other Hollywood personages. They are to go on the stand as rebuttal witnesses for the state. District Attorney Brady would not say what questions were to be put to Miss Glaum nor would he outline his rebuttal case except to say it would require a full day to present it.

Chief defense counsel McNab promised "several more jolts" for the state before he closes his case, probably this evening.

Through Ignatius McCarthy, defense expert, McNab expected today to demonstrate to the jury that finger prints, alleged by the state to be those of Arbuckle, superimposed over those of Virginia Rappe, were not in fact Arbuckle's. A microscope was to be used in the demonstration. As the case shaped up today there was little prospect of a verdict before Saturday. Two days will likely be given over to arguments.

TO HAVE FULL DIVISION
Columbus, Nov. 28.—That Ohio is likely to have a complete division of national guardsmen, about 10,000 soldiers, by New Years Day, is the announcement made by Adjutant General Florence. The Ohio National Guard now comprises approximately 8,000 officers and enlisted men.

WIDOW OF NAVY

Mrs. Gertrude Childs and
Lieut. Arthur Emerson

When Mrs. Gertrude B. Childs, of Brooklyn, N. Y., sails for Italy next month it will be to become the bride, in Christmas week, of Lieut. Arthur T. Emerson, U. S. N., aide to Admiral Niblack, commander of the American Fleet in European waters. The ceremony will be aboard the U. S. S. Utah, at Naples. Mrs. Childs is the widow of Lieutenant Earl Childs, U. S. N., who was killed in action in the Irish Sea early in 1918. She met Lieut. Emerson last year, when she christened the U. S. S. Childs named in her husband's honor. Their romance developed quickly. Mrs. Childs has one child, Earl Jr., now three and one-half years old. Lieutenant Emerson's home is in Winchester, Mass.

HAS ANNOUNCED HIS CANDIDACY

Congressman S. D. Fess, at his home in Yellow Springs, Monday, denied emphatically a story published in a Cincinnati newspaper, Sunday, saying that he had announced to President Harding his intention to be a candidate for United States Senator from Ohio.

The story stated that Congressman Fess had notified the President of his intention of being a candidate, through an official intermediary, in order to forestall attempts of other possible candidates to further their own ambitions by securing executive aid. It said further that Dr. Fess had not previously announced his candidacy owing to a belief that a premature announcement would injure his candidacy, and that an official announcement would not be made until around Christmas time.

To these statements, Dr. Fess, entered a general denial. "I had a conference with the President last Wednesday," he said, "but this question was not touched upon. Further, I can say that there will be no announcement at Christmas time. The situation now is just about the same as it was when I talked to you before." The congressman here referred to an interview given this paper several weeks ago, in which he said he was not yet ready to officially announce his candidacy for United States Senator.

"It is still too early to make any statement about my possible candidacy," said Dr. Fess. When asked if the story in the Cincinnati paper was not possibly an attempt to force his hand and bring forth an official announcement, Dr. Fess said "that is about the case."

Dr. Fess is home on a speaking tour until after congress convenes Dec. 5, and he is filling several invitations. Sunday he delivered an address at the Dayton Y. M. C. A. The story in the Cincinnati paper said that Dr. Fess had been assured the support of the Ohio delegation in Congress, including Representative Charles I. Knight of Akron, Republican, who has been mentioned as a candidate for Governor, but who it is now said, will not enter the race unless Governor Harry L. Davis eliminates himself.

SOCIETY FAVORITE
DIES IN BERLIN

Berlin, Nov. 28.—Count Gregory once society favorite at New York and Newport, was dead in Moabit prison today as a result of a heart attack. He was also known as Baron Gruenbaum, and "the bogus nobleman." He came here from New York two weeks ago and created a stir at the hotel Adlon by his eccentric taste in clothes which included a green plaid overcoat, orange vest, white garters and cut-away coat.

Count Gregory was arrested on complaint of his landlady who charged him with swindling her out of several thousand marks. He offered to marry the landlady but was refused.

INVESTIGATION OF FIRE HAZARDS

THREE IN NEW HAVEN TRAGEDY

Fifty-Seven are Injured In Blaze Which Destroys Theater In Connecticut, Sunday Night--Known
Dead, Three But Others May Have Perished

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 28.—A quired by law in all but movie theaters and the combination of burning incense and filmy draperies are the principal subjects of inquiry by the coroner.

The fire is said to have started when the blaze from incense burning on the stage to give local atmosphere to an Arabian picture which was being shown, ignited some scenery.

Coroner Mix ordered a formal inquest, following a preliminary investigation of the fire.

Firemen searched among the debris today in the belief other bodies might be buried in the wreckage. Timothy J. Hanlon, 58, a factory watchman, whose neck was broken in his attempt to leave the theater during the panic was the only one of the dead thus far identified. The other two victims were a woman about 65 and a young man, both of whom were found on fire escapes.

On the dangerous list were Mabel Moran, 25, of Derby; Mrs. Mary Kelly, 27, of Prospect Beach; Allan Keith, Yale student of Southport, Conn.; T. E. Doolittle, Yale student of Spokane, Wash., and Victor Cortler of this city, all terribly burned and injured. All the others injured were New Haven residents with the exception of some Yale students, 12 of whom are being cared for at the Yale infirmary and most of whom are reported out of danger.

The damage to the theatre owned by former State Senator Harry Leonard of this city and managed by the Black theater organization of Boston, was estimated at $25,000.

Lack of an asbestos curtain, reported by the coroner, was one of the causes of the disaster.

BELL BOY TO DENY

Will Plead Insanity To Escape Electric Chair
Is Belief.

Lima, O., Nov. 28.—Harold Nierengarten, youthful bell boy, who pleaded guilty, Saturday, to a first degree murder charge that he slew Joseph Scott Kershaw, world war veteran will later deny his guilt for the crime, repudiate his confession and plead insanity to escape the electric chair, authorities believe.

They base their belief on Nierengarten's request for legal counsel and the fact his widowed mother has announced she will use her meagre savings to secure an attorney to save his life.

The shooting occurred as they rode together, Sunday afternoon, Nov. 20, in a box car on a Baltimore and Ohio freight train between Cridersville and Wapakoneta.

When arraigned, Nierengarten was as self-possessed as on Friday night, when he blankly requested a cup of coffee as the price of his confession to the fatal shooting of his friend.

A session of the Auglaize county grand jury will be called soon and Prosecutor Timmermeister, will ask they return an indictment for first degree murder. If he pleads guilty to that charge, Judge F. C. Clayton will pass sentence. Plea of not guilty will be followed by a trial by jury.

Affidavit charging first degree murder, upon which he was arraigned Saturday was sworn to by P. A. Kershaw, Lima, father of the young man whom Nierengarten admits slaying.

ALLEGED BANDITS ARE CAPTURED

Boston, Nov. 28.—Two men were under arrest today charged with participation in the $28,000 First National bank hold-up Saturday, when the payroll of the Walton Shoe Co., was stolen from a bank truck.

John Dubont, 30, of Scranton, Pa., was arrested as he lay asleep, revolver in hand in a room in the Everett. His former roommate, James Luna, 25, of Olyphant, Pa., was arrested in a South Boston rooming house, where he was found suffering from a bullet shattered right arm.

Beneath Dubont's bed police found a leather bag containing about $20,000 in cash. Police say Luna has made a confession of the hold up.

SURRENDERS LOOT

Detroit, Nov. 28.—Unnerved by the mistaken belief two men opposite him in a train coming to Detroit from Philadelphia, today were detectives, John Piquette, 17, surrendered to them and gave up $5,000 said by police to be part of the $28,000 loot obtained in a hold up Saturday at Chelsea, Mass.

Attempt To Learn Where-

derbilt Without Success

New York, Nov. 28.—Efforts to learn the extent of the friendship existing between Reginald Vanderbilt, millionaire club and society man with Charlotte Carter, former actress and writer, who attempted suicide by poisoning in her hotel apartment here were unavailing today.

Vanderbilt could not be located either at his home or his office. Dr. I. L. Hill, who attended the actress said she believed she was going to die and asked him to notify Vanderbilt.

Discussing her life, Miss Carter said Mary Roberts Rhinehart, famous authoress, had been her literary sponsor and had dedicated a novel to her. She said that on her mother's side she was related to Harriet Beecher Stowe, that her grandfather was head of the Riggs National Bank of Washington, and that her father is Herbert Flather, expert of the magnet wire company. She declared she had searched fruitlessly for employment until her money gave out.

So, with starvation and failure her only future, she concluded, "there was but one way out. I tried to take it, but failed. Perhaps the next time I will succeed."

PREMIER DETERMINED TO ATTEND MEETING

London, Nov. 28.—Premier Lloyd George's determination to go to Washington has been strengthened by the latest developments in the international conference. It was learned today that he has made tentative bookings on all the liners sailing for New York in the next three weeks. The premier has promised the various shipping companies to give 48 hours notice as to the liner he will take. Officials in Downing Street are confident Lloyd George will be in Washington before Christmas.

Unless there is such a session arranged, it seemed improbable that there will be another plenary session soon. Far eastern affairs are still in the committee stage and are likely to remain so for some time. Chinese post office and foreign courts are not objects that lend themselves to discussions in which the public can get enthusiastically excited.

TWO HUNDRED ARE NOW UNDER ARREST

Cleveland, Nov. 28.—More than two hundred persons are under arrest today in the most sweeping clean up of suspicious characters in Cleveland in years. The arrests, many of which were made yesterday and early this morning, followed orders from Chief of Police Frank W. Smith to rid the city of all suspicious characters and came as the result of the murder of a police officer Friday and a citizen Saturday.

Numerous hold ups accompanied by violence have accompanied the most recent crime outbreak.

"Why shouldn't I bob my hair like the rest of the girls? I'm only one hundred and five and I expect to break the record of my grandmother who lived to be one hundred and twenty-five years of age," said Mrs. Rivka Zippe, the "youngest girl" in Newark, a resident of the Daughters of Israel Home for the aged. She is so full of the joy of living and the curiosity of her sex that her companions at the home call her the telephone.

"I attribute my youth to my diet," said she "I eat no meat and very little bread. Milk, broth and coffee are my chief foods. During the nights if I lie awake, I plan what I shall talk about the next day and how much I shall enjoy the years I shall have to live. I love life—I can't say how much. Business Deflation Following War is Cause of Decrease.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Business deflation following the war caused a drop of $812,579,496 in taxes collected by the government in the last fiscal year, Revenue Commissioner Blair announced today in his annual report.

There was paid into the treasury through collectors of revenue $4,595,000,000 as compared with $5,407,000,000 the preceding year.

Most of the 9,000,000 tax payers are meeting their tax obligations on an installment basis, Blair said. Income and profits taxes raised $3,228,000,000. Other revenue sources were from distilled spirits, fermented liquors, tobacco, oleomargarine, capital stock, tax, war excise taxes and documentary stamp sales by postmasters all of which aggregated $1,366,822,000.

It cost the government 87 cents to collect each $100 paid to the government as against 55 cents per $100 of the preceding year. Increased cost of collecting the revenues, Mr. Blair said, was due mainly to reduced collections.

The commissioners discussion of the government's control over liquor manufacture and sales disclosed that the distilleries continue to pile up big reserve stocks of whiskey for the possible emergency demands of the future.

Mother of Five Children
Will Not Have to Take

Denver, Colo., Nov. 28.—Mrs. Clyde Cossidente, mother of five children, the oldest of whom is eight, will not have to submit to an operation to prevent her from having more children.

Judge R. R. Graham who was declared to have issued in juvenile court here an order that such an operation be performed or the mother's brood taken from her because of the squalor in which the family was living today denied that he had made such ruling.

Shortly after the hearing in the case, Judge Graham said, "I replied in answer to a question that such an order might be entered if the conditions made it necessary and both parents gave their consent."

"There is no law that would force Mrs. Cossidente to give up her children or submit to such an operation as an alternative," he added.

DEFENSE WILL USE UNWRITTEN LAW

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 28.—Mrs. Louise Conkle, blonde, and pretty, went on trial for her life here today. The unwritten law it is intimated, will be her defense to an indictment accusing her of the murder of her girlhood chum, Mrs. Pearl Williams in the latter's home on October 29.

The murder followed assertions by the defendant that a pact that ended a love triangle that involved the Conkles and Mrs. Williams had been kept by parties involved. Mrs. Conkle went to Mrs. Williams' home as she was ready to leave for her work and shot her down. The great part of today will be devoted to selecting of a trial jury.

WOMAN IS KILLED ON DAYTON-XENIA PIKE LATE SUNDAY

Dayton, Nov. 28.—Mystery surrounds the finding of the body of Mrs. Florence Sterne, 60, R. R. No. 12, Dayton, along the Dayton and Xenia pike about one-half mile from her home, Sunday night about nine o'clock.

The lifeless body was found lying in a pool of blood by Charles A. Vogel, of Dayton, who turned out at the side of the road at that point to avoid another car, and who saw the body in the light from his machine. Unable to avoid striking the body the wheels of his car passed over the woman's feet before he could bring the car to a stop.

The body was carried into a nearby grocery and investigation showed two large holes in the head. Authorities who investigated believe the woman was struck by an automobile, the driver of which sped on after the accident. Blood along the road indicated that the body had been dragged some distance before the machine threw it to one side.

Mrs. Sterne lived with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reichert about a half-mile from the scene of the accident and was employed as manager of the store cafeteria of the Rike-Kumler company. She left home, Sunday evening at five o'clock, to attend a theater. The body was found shortly before nine o'clock, and was cold at the time.

Mrs. Margaret Thompson, 55, of 24 West Monument avenue, Dayton, widow of the former pastor of the Linden Avenue Baptist Church, Fourth Street and Linden avenue, was struck and seriously injured as she was leaving the church Sunday evening shortly before nine o'clock by an automobile said to have been driven by Lee Brown, 205 Linden avenue. She is at the Miami Valley hospital where attendants say she is suffering from a fractured skull and possible internal injuries.

TRIANGLES LOSE TO BUFFALO 7-0

The Dayton Triangles dropped another game in the professional football league championship race when they lost to the Buffalo All-Americans at Buffalo Sunday, by a 7-0 score.

Anderson, Bison left half made the only touchdown in the game when he zig-zagged around end on a fake pass in the first five minutes of play and ran 45 yards to the goal, Hughtitt adding the extra point.

In the last few seconds of play Bacon of the Triangles ran through the entire Buffalo team to their three-yard line where he was downed and the final whistle blew before the final smash could be started. Buffalo could do nothing with the Triangle line throughout the game. Owing to a muddy field, the Dayton Eagle-West Side Merchant city championship tilt to have been played Sunday at Triangle park, was called off, and will be played either next Saturday or Sunday.

ARCHITECT GRANTED VERDICT IN CASE UP SINCE 1912

After being in litigation since 1912 during which time the case was shuffled about in the Clinton county courts, H. W. Owens architect of this city, has been granted a verdict against the city of Wilmington in a suit to recover architects fees for the drawing of plans and the construction of the Walker Memorial building in Wilmington.

Mr. Owens drew the original plans for the building ten years ago, and it is said they were accepted by the Wilmington council, $25,000 having been bequeathed the city for the erection of a memorial building. Later the plans were rejected and a new architect obtained, and Mr. Owens sued to collect his fees of five per cent of the cost, three per cent for the drawings and two per cent for inspection and overseeing.

The city authorities refused Mr. Owens' claim when he presented it, and he brought suit in the Clinton county courts. The case has been pending ever since. Recently action was obtained on it when it was heard before a visiting judge. The court of appeals in Cincinnati has now upheld the claim, in part, holding that the plaintiff is entitled to three per cent for his work on the plans, with interest dated for ten years, but not entitled to the remainder because he did not supervise the actual construction work.

The judgment, it is said, will amount to $1,200. W. L. Miller, local attorney, represented Mr. Owens in the legal action.

SHOOTING VICTIM DIES OF WOUNDS; WARRANT UNSERVED

The death of Wilbur Odon, 24, colored, 732 East Main street, this city, at the Miami Valley Hospital Dayton, Sunday night as the result of a shooting scrape said to have taken place at the home of John Millon, Second and McGee streets, Dayton, Thursday evening, has led to a first degree murder charge being filed against Frank Stokes, colored, Wilberforce University student, who is believed to have done the shooting.

The shooting is said to have been the culmination of a feud between the two which started two weeks ago on the Dayton and Xenia pike. Odon and Stokes were attending a party given by University students at the Millon home and the feud was renewed. Stokes is said to have drawn his gun on Odon early in the afternoon but it was taken away from him. Later he obtained possession of the gun. The shooting occurred about 4:30 in the afternoon and Odon was taken to the hospital with two bullet wounds in the abdomen.

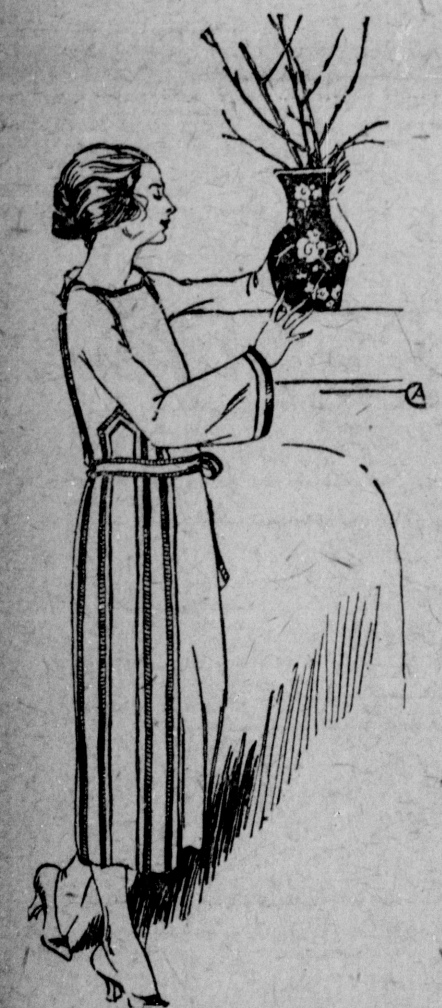

Stokes escaped immediately after the shooting, and is said to have stopped at a house in West Dayton where he left the gun with which the shooting was done. Nothing more has been heard from him although the police of both Dayton and Xenia have been on the lookout for him since the shooting.

Odon and Stokes were fellow students in the government vocational training school for ex-soldiers at Wilberforce University. Odon served during the World War as a member of Co. A, 813th Pioneer Infantry overseas.

Styles BY LENORE

There is lovely soft shade of brick red which ought really to be worn more often than is usual, for it is becoming to so many types of brunette coloring. Especially in the soft finished fabrics of winter, like velvet, duvetyn and velour, it is very agreeable.

But, you object, it is not "safe," it is difficult to keep other things matched to it, and son on, all of which is true when one manages with very few dresses. So the trim-looking red cloth frock shown today, trimmed with black stitching and silk braid, may be duplicated in your favorable color. There is a small-shoulder collar in the black, which, by the way, is a single shoulder-to-hem panel, brought slightly into the figure by the girdle at each side.

Marshal Foch as Guest of American Legion Sets New Globe Trotting Record

Generalissimo of Allied Armies Travels 25,000 Miles in 60 Days

Ferdinand Foch, Marshal of France, has proved himself to be the youngest and liveliest man of three score years and ten that the world has ever seen. The commander-in-chief of the allied armies is now being rolled around the country at a rate beyond the dreams of a Jules Verne, and will soon return to France with a new record for intrepid globe-trotting.

The itinerary laid out for the Marshal by the American Legion's reception committee calls for 25,000 miles in sixty days. To do it, the transportation facilities of the country have been placed at the Legion's complete disposal. It's "right of way" in every line for the "American Legion Special for Marshal Foch."

Phineas Fogg, the hero of "Around the World in Eighty Days," is well outclassed by this little man from France. The boots he had on when he left the White House, for the official visit to President Harding, which marked the start of his journey through the states, were more than the regulation boots of a general officer in the Army of France—they were the modern equivalent of the mythical Seven League Boots. The Marshal's boots were to see twenty leagues a day as a regular performance; 416 miles every 24 hours, 17 miles every hour.

Not until noon on Wednesday, December 14, will the American Legion bid its guest good-bye. And when the Marshal stands on the deck of the great French liner, and watches the skyline of New York fade out into the New World horizon, he will be carrying memories of as strenuous a campaign as ever was waged on the Marne; of toastmasters by the score, of honorary degrees, of a host of station masters and trainmen, and inspections, corner stones laid, and of slices of America running all the way from New England's rock-bound coast to the sunny slopes of bonny California.

He will have seen the great wheat fields of the Dakotas, the vast plains of Texas, and the plantations of the Southland; a good deal more, it is safe to say, than it is given to the average American citizen to see in all his lifetime.

Only a few weeks ago, the American Legion brought Marshal Foch to the United States as the guest of the Legion and began piloting him around this country. At first the officials of the Legion were careful about making the Marshal's trip one that would not prove too strenuous for him. But they found that the man who led the allied troops to victory in the World War was a great deal more strenuous than they had estimated. For Marshal Foch said he wanted to see the United States from top to bottom and from one side to the other, and that too fast a pace could not be set for him. Therefore a trip which had at first been set for about three weeks was extended to seven weeks and a plan of travel mapped out which is taking the Marshal all around the United States.

Marshal Foch landed in this country October 28 and was formally received by the National Reception Committee of the American Legion of which Alton T. Roberts of Marquette, Michigan, is Chairman, and Franklin D'Olier of Philadelphia, Past Commander of the American Legion, is Vice Chairman.

From New York, on a special train of the Pennsylvania Railroad, he went to Washington, Baltimore, Kansas City, where he attended the annual convention of the American Legion; to St. Louis, Indianapolis, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, Pittsburgh and back to Washington in time for the Armistice Day Ceremonies at Arlington Cemetery.

Thence, he went to New Haven, seeing the Yale-Princeton game. There he received the degree of LL.D.; to Providence where Brown conferred another degree; to Boston where Harvard conferred still another.

Then he went back to Washington and finally returned to New York.

In each city, he received a rousing welcome and was on the go from early morning till late at night. When he reached New York at the end of his first tour, the newspapermen asked him, at the home of de Lancey Kountze, whether he was tired. His reply was:

"Tired. No. Any man who went through the world war can never feel tired."

And then the Marshal straightway approved a new plan for his complete Western trip which includes: Richmond, Va.; Mason City, Ia.; the home of National Commander, Hanford MacNider of the American Legion; Minneapolis, St. Paul, Billings, N.D.; Billings, Mont.; Spokane, Wash.; Seattle, Wash.; Portland, Ore.; San Francisco, Los Angeles, Cal.; Grand Canyon, Ariz. Houston, Texas; New Orleans; Montgomery, Ala.; Atlanta, Ga.; Spartanburg, S.C.; Charlotte, N.C.; then back to Washington. Leaving Washington, he goes to West Point, Albany, N.Y.; Ottawa, Ont.; Montreal, Que.; and finally back to New York City by way of Vermont and Springfield, Mass.

The Marshal and his party reach New York December 13th and sail for France on the following day. Never before has a distinguished visitor undertaken such an extensive tour in so limited a time. This is what Marshal Foch has to say:

"I enjoy it all immensely. I am seeing the people I love most, next to my own countrymen. It does not tire me. It exhilarates me. I am seeing my comrades of the American Legion, most of whom fought under me with their illustrious General Pershing. It is a magnificent trip. I am delighted."

TO ENFORCE CURFEW LAW

Belmont, Nov. 28.—Council has voted to resurrect the curfew ordinance by which children are required to be off the streets at 7:30 p. m. from October first to April first and after 9:30 during the remainder of the year. Fines of from $1 to $5 are provided for violations.

NEW INCOME TAX LAW BENEFICIAL SAYS ACCOUNTANT

"The average man has everything to gain and nothing to lose, by the new income tax law which has been passed by Congress and became a law immediately.

"The man of yesterday, with an income of less than $5000 who had a wife and two children to support, was permitted an exemption of only $2062 and $206 for each child. Today he is allowed an exemption of $2500 and $400 for each child or person dependent on him," according to W. E. Langdon, certified public accountant and industrial engineer of Columbus.

"Everyone must make returns," cautions Mr. Langdon. "The single man with $1000 income a year, the married man whose net income is $2000 a year, and the man whose net income is not taxable, but who has a gross income of $5,000, all must take out tax returns if they want to come within the law.

"Corporations are differently affected. Where heretofore all corporations were allowed an exemption of $2000, this now applies only to those whose incomes are less than $25,000. Corporations will pay 12 1-2 per cent income tax instead of 10 per cent excess profits tax to pay after January 1, 1922."

RED CROSS WORKERS HOPEFUL OF SUCCESS OF CAMPAIGN HERE

Although Thanksgiving Day was the last day of the Fifth Red Cross Call Drive, the leaders have not received the final reports of some of the solicitors, and are as a result unable to state as to whether the drive was a success or failure.

Considering the amount that has already been turned in, the workers have hopes of a satisfactory result. Xenia township including Xenia city's donations is in the neighborhood of $1,000. This amount includes $210 which was received from the Eagles benefit last week at the Bijou theater. The workers in the drive highly commend the lodge for their part, and have stated that if other organizations of the city and county had cooperated likewise, the success of the drive would have been assured.

Mrs. A. E. Faulkner, county Roll chairman, and Mrs. Charles Kelbie, city chairman, are expressing their gratitude to all who have answered the plea of the organization. Anyone who has not been solicited, and wishes to aid "The Greatest Mother in the World" is asked to send their subscription to the Red Cross office in the Court House.

FESS SAYS ARMS CONFERENCE WILL ATTAIN SUCCESS

"Success of the limitation of arms conference is assured. It will be the one outstanding feature in history since the civil war, Congressman S. D. Fess, of Yellow Springs told an audience at the Dayton Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon.

"The far eastern question is the most serious international problem that the four great powers have had or will have to consider for the United States, Great Britain and France must recognize the fact that Japan must have territory for expansion," Dr. Fess said.

"Guarding against the possibility that Japan will try to take China for this expansion of her territories the three great powers, the United States, Great Britain and France, must make it impossible for this move to come up in the future.

"The limitation of armaments program as set forth by the U. S. has been agreed upon by the nations having representatives at the conference now being held in Washington. This program provides that the United States will scrap 800,000 tons of her navy, Great Britain will scrap 600,000 tons and Japan 400,000.

"Japan now has asked the conference that she be allowed to replace her tonnage to the amount of 350,000 tons as that will enable her to keep her latest naval addition, Great Britain and the United States are confident Japan will accept the terms as first brought out.

IN BED EIGHT MONTHS

Cause—Change of Life. How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Got Me Up

Afton, Tenn.—"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. During the Change of Life I was in bed for eight months and had two good doctors treating me but they did me no good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did, and in a short time I felt better. I had all kinds of bad spells, but they all left me. Now when I feel weak and nervous I take the Vegetable Compound and it always does me good. I wish all women would try it during the Change of Life for I know it will do them good. If you think it will induce some one to try the Vegetable Compound you may publish this letter."

—Mrs. A. KELLER, Afton, Tennessee.

Women from forty-five to fifty years of age should take warning from such symptoms as heat flashes, palpitation of the heart, smothering or fainting spells, or spots before the eyes, and prepare their system for this perfectly natural change by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has helped many, many women through this trying period, just as it did Mrs. Keller.

in the proposals of the United States program.

"France has stated her position in regard to the United States, Great Britain, Italy and Japan. Her proposals have been accepted by the powers and will go on file at the conference after a few minor changes have been made and verified.

"There are four points in the proposal that the United States offers China. They are that a comprehensive study of the Chinese question be made and that China be allowed to adjust her own internal troubles; that the independence of China be accepted; that she be allowed the open door; and that she be given a chance to work out conditions under a stable government. Japan is at no time to interfere with China or her territories. Practically all of the countries have accepted the offer, excepting China and she is withholding until Japan makes an offer to fulfill the last condition of the proposal of the United States.

"By the acceptance of the proposals, the naval expenditures of the United States next year will be cut from $410,000,000 to $175,000,000 and the army expenditures from $328,000,000 to $200,000,000 making a total saving of $350,000,000."

COMMUNITY CLUB RENDERS PROGRAM FRIDAY EVENING

Members of the Richland Community Club enjoyed an interesting Thanksgiving program at a meeting at the Richland school house, held Friday evening.

The program was opened with a Thanksgiving prayer by L. E. Oldham, followed by a song by the school boys' quartette and a paper "The Origin of Thanksgiving Day," presented by Mrs. A. C. Mendenhall.

The children of the community then gave short talks on some incident in everyday life and what they were thankful for. Hazel Matthews received the prize for giving the best talk. Harold Matthews, gave a recitation and a quartette composed of D. F. Beam, Flera Beam, Martha Beam and Mr. Sayres presented one number.

Children of the school, presented the exercise "The Ten Little Peppers," followed by a discussion on the advantage of going to college, a song by the school, the reading of the community paper and a patriotic drill by the school. Refreshments were served after the program.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

LOCAL TEAM WILL LOSE EIGHT MEN BY GRADUATION

Coach Jerry Katherman's victorious Central High football eleven, which closed the first undefeated season in the history of the school with a 34-0 victory over Springfield will lose eight men by graduation.

Captain McCallister, Ex-Captain Boxwell, Randall, Lannes, Reutinger, Davis, Ferguson and Douthett, are the players who earned their letters this season who will be lost to the team through the diploma route. Subtracting these eight men from Coach Katherman's squad of 31 athletes, will leave 23 who have had football training who will be available for next year's squad.

Of these 23 players, nine are regulars and some of the rest have had some little experience on this year's eleven. The nine regular who will return to the school are: Fuller, half back; Purdom, end; Ballentyne, tackle; Hendrickson, tackle; Cowan, end; D. Currie, captain-elect and guard; A. Currie, quarterback, Smith, guard and end, and Yeakley, center. Others who have had some experience and who will probably take their regular turns next year are Botoroff, G. Keller and Lane while there are 11 other lads who did not hesitate to turn up at practice and absorb all the football they could and who will provide a likely nucleus for next year's squad.

With this likely lot of material eligible for next year, the severe losses occasioned by the departure of the seniors on the team are somewhat alleviated. The departing footballers will wreck Coach Katherman's backfield, but will leave the line practically intact. McCallister, Lannes and Randall, played at the halves this year. Boxwell at full back, Reutinger at end, and Douthett, Ferguson and Davis at the guards.

Boxwell's loss will be felt most severely, for the fans here are mentioning this lad as an all-Ohio interscholastic possibility. The big boy, who is only 17 years of age and who weighs 176 pounds completed three years of football without losing a minute of play when the season ended this year. Boxwell made the squad in his freshman year, but was not a letter man. The next season he played regularly at tackle, and last year performed at full back and was captain. This year he again played the full back position and played the best game of his high school career.

Boxwell did all the kicking off and punted with the best of them after Lannes' injury kept him out of the game. He can pass the oval or get on the receiving end of it with remarkable skill, and his defensive playing left nothing to be desired. In line plunging he was equally successful with running the ends. Over and above his straight football tactics he could place kick accurately when called upon and during the season just closed he contributed 13 touchdowns, two place kicks and 18 goal kicks out of 22 attempts, for a total of 102 out of the 222 points scored by Xenia this year. During the West Alexandria, Hillsboro and Greenfield games, Boxwell kicked 11 goal kicks without a miss and he made two out of three good the next week at Miamisburg.

Captain McCallister's loss will be felt as much in his ability as a leader as anything else. Shifted from half back to quarter, his style of play was spoiled somewhat this season, but his crafty generalship and the personality he possessed to keep the team playing at top speed made his services invaluable.

Unfortunately fans saw little of the play of "Doc" Lannes, shifty half back, as he did not get in a home game. He convinced fans who traveled to Washington, Miamisburg and Wilmington however, of his speed, dodging ability and punting prowess and it is unfortunate that his injury kept him from showing more of his grid qualities.

One of the finds of the season in the way of backfield men was "Tad" Randall, rated as one of the fastest half backs ever developed at the local school. Randall, with his running mate, Fuller, were rated as substitutes at the start of the season when the backfield was composed of McCallister, Lannes, Boxwell and A. Currie. Lannes' and Currie's injuries necessitated both Fuller and Randall going in the game and they distinguished themselves at these positions.

In Eddie Reutinger, Coach Katherman developed an end, invaluable for his fighting spirit and his ability to follow the ball and cover punts rapidly. Ferguson, Douthett and Davis, composed a trio of guards who will graduate, who were ready to slip into the pastime at any minute and who will be missed as utility men. Considering Katherman's shifting of Smith from end to guard and the fact that Purdom and Cowan are ends with two year's experience, the local line, one of the best in the history of the school is left practically intact. Purdom and Cowan, at the ends; Hendrickson and Ballentyne at the tackles; D. Currie and Smith at the guards and Yeakley at center, are all undergraduates, while A. Currie and Fuller are the only backfield men to return next year. The task ahead of the blue and white mentor for next year is to develop several of his linemen into backfield men, or to depend for his backfield on the new material which looks unusually promising.

The blue and white team although rated principally as a defensive team scored 222 points against its opponents 7 during the season just closed. They were divided as follows: Boxwell 13 touchdowns, two place kicks and 18 goal kicks, for a total of 102 points; Captain McCallister, six touchdowns, for a total of 36 points; Randall, four points; A. Currie, two touchdowns, or 12 points; Fuller, two touchdowns or 12 points; Lannes, one touchdown and two goal kicks, or eight points; Smith, Cowan, Yeakley and Reutinger, one touchdown apiece, or six points each and Purdom, four goal kicks, or four points.

Pepto-Mangan

The man who walks with a slouch usually has a heavy, dull expression on his face. The eyelids droop in a lazy, languid way and he goes around feeling dead tired most of the time. Bad blood, all clogged up with poisons from the system, makes a man feel that way.

That man with bad blood has let himself get in a rundown condition. He has overdone somehow, either physically by straining, trying to do too much, or mentally, by worrying, doing without sufficient sleep. He needs new blood. Gude's Pepto-Mangan taken in regular doses every day is just the right blood builder. It drives off all the poisons. It makes blood, rich and red. When the blood gets back to normal, the color improves and the eyes brighten. It braces a man up.

Druggists sell it in liquid or convenient tablet form. The full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," is on each package.

The Booteries will open the evening's entertainment with the preliminary frames at 7:15 o'clock, and the big game of the evening will follow immediately afterward. In a game last week, the South Side tossers defeated Spring Valley and the return game is expected to prove an interesting melee.

Following the double-header the Bruson Bootery orchestra will furnish music for a dance at the rink.

POLICE BELIEVE AUTOMOBILE THEFTS CLEARED UP FOLLOWING ARREST OF THREE YOUTHS SAID TO HAVE CONFESSED

Authorities believe they have run down the theft of at least two automobiles and possibly a third, in this city last week, with the arrest of William Collins, 21, Orville Green, 19 and Harrison Green, 16 who are being detained in the county jail following their arrests by the sheriff and Deputy Day.

The arrest of the trio followed the theft of an Oldsmobile roadster belonging to Grant St. John of near New Jasper, which was stolen from Detroit and Union streets at nine o'clock Saturday night and later discovered in a ditch on the Jamestown pike four miles from Xenia. When arrested the three youths confessed their stealing of the St. John car and also the Roy Ary automobile, which was stolen last week from West Second street and recovered by Dayton police at Beavercreek.

Attempting to dim the lights of the St. John car near the "four-mile" bridge on the Jamestown pike, ended in disaster for the trio of youthful automobile thieves. As they dimmed the lights, they accidentally disconnected the batteries and the car in the darkness, crashed into the ditch. Charles Mumma, of Dayton, and three other Dayton men who had been hunting and were returning to this city in an automobile, picked up the three youths and brought them to this city. They later gave a description of them to the sheriff and the arrest followed.

Questioned in the county jail, the trio admitted they had also stolen the Ary car earlier in the week. One of the boys had been taught how to drive an Oldsmobile by his brother, Harrison Green, 16, youngest of the trio will probably be tried in Juvenile court while the older boys will be given their hearings before Justice of the Peace J. E. Jones.

FOUR HUNGARIANS ARE GIVEN HEARING

Four Hungarians, charged with violation of the state game laws and with drunkenness, were given a long hearing before Magistrate J. E. Jones, Saturday morning.

Prosecuting Attorney prosecuted William Szekel, on a charge of hunting without a license, and Joe Smerod, Mike Kimis and Joe Szabo on charges of possessing game out of season.

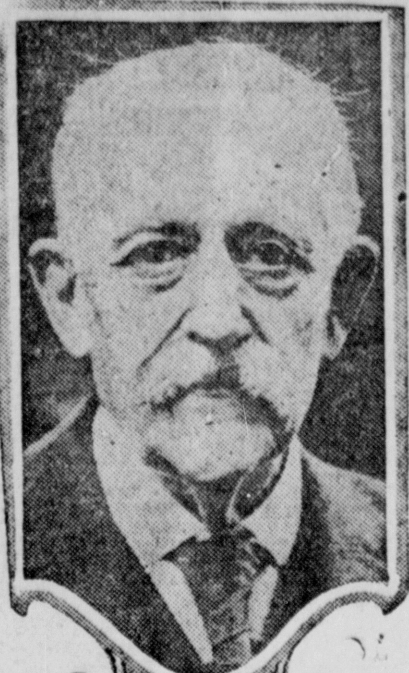

All four were also charged with drunkenness. Magistrate Jones took the case under advisement following the hearing. The four men were represented by Attorneys William Rhotenhamel of Dayton and J. A. Finney of this city.

Y. S. HIGH DEFEATS SPRING VALLEY FIVE

Yellow Springs high school basketball team defeated Spring Valley high in a slow and uninteresting game at Yellow Springs Friday night 45-11 in the opening of the county high school basketball season.

Bausman led the scoring for Yellow Springs with nine field goals. In a preliminary game the Yellow Springs high first girls' team defeated the second girls' team 20-3. Yellow Springs will play Beavercreek high next Wednesday night at Kelly Hall, Antioch. Beavercreek has four men left from last year and the game is looked forward to as one of the hardest of the season.

XENIA AVENUE IN WILMINGTON OPEN

Xenia avenue, in Wilmington, which is now in the course of being paved, is now open temporarily to traffic. The concrete base for the asphalt paving to be put down is now in stable condition to be used for traffic, and the blocks have been taken down permitting traffic on the street. Since the construction work was started traffic has been forced to follow a detour of several miles out from the city limits, and over a narrow muddy road. The new paving will furnish a paved street from the city limits into the heart of the city.

JOBE BROTHERS COMPANY

J. E. SUTTON MAKES 'PAY-IN'; CLAIMS NO SHORTAGE EXISTS

Vigorous denial that a "pay-in" of $2,576.14, made by him to the county, represents a shortage in the county's funds, was made by former county treasurer J. E. Sutton, in a statement to the Gazette and the Republican, Sunday.

The former treasurer gave his reason for presenting his check to cover the apparent deficit, the fact that he had been so advised by state examiner Clifton, who has been making an examination of the accounts, and that he had done so with the understanding that if a later check developed that an error had been made, he would be refunded to that amount.

The check was made out for $2,576.14 and was transferred last Wednesday during the noon hour. It was dated November 23, and included payments of $1,323.52 to be made to the undivided general tax fund; $838.89 to the over and double payment fund and $413.73 to the county fund.

Admitting that the "pay-in" gives the appearance of guilt—Mr. Sutton however, denied that "graft" has been practiced in the office, and states that the examiner's report, which will soon be made to the state auditor, and subsequent investigations to be conducted in the office, will eliminate all or at least, most of the book errors that have given the appearance of a shortage.

Mr. Sutton, in an interview with a Gazette and Republican reporter, yesterday said that the "pay-in" of $2,576.14 made to the county, includes several hundred dollars in cash, available in the treasurer's office, which he says should be returned to taxpayers.

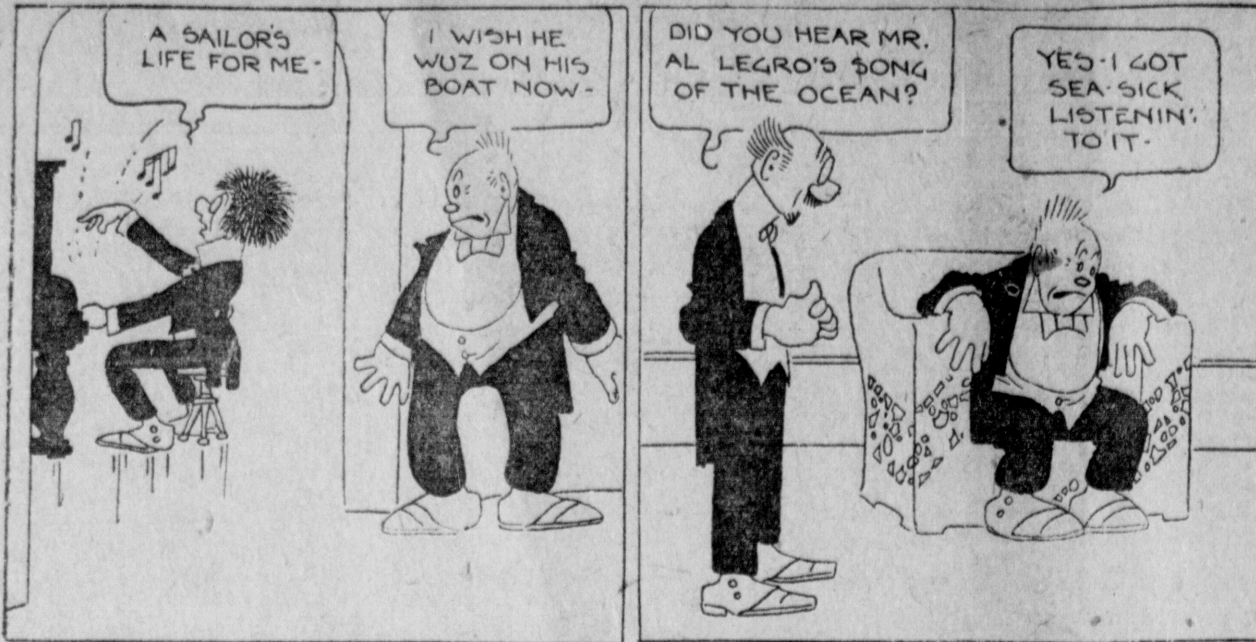

This amount, according to Mr. Sutton, was collected from city taxpayers for street sprinkling assessments. He says that through an oversight on the part of the city, street sprinkling assessments against property holders were not certified over to the treasurer in time that year. Later the neglect was discovered, and Mr. Sutton says that he collected those assessments because they were due the city and that he had the money on hand ready to be turned over to the city. However, he says, the state examiner rules that the collection was illegal because the assessments were not certified over properly. This amount, according to Mr. Sutton was included in the "pay-in" to the county.

Errors in book-keeping, according to the former treasurer, amounted to $800 in 1918, $901 in 1919 and about $283 in 1920. Mr. Sutton defends these errors by pointing out that the examination covered a three-year period, that in that time over $4,000,000 was handled by the treasurer's office, represented by over 400,000 separate items.

The possibilities of errors occurring in cases where banks are allowed tax receipts to collect taxes from their clients, is explained as one way in which shortages could occur. According to Mr. Sutton some of the county banks take out as high as $20,000 worth of tax receipts for their clients. The stubs, showing that this amount of taxes has been paid, are left in the treasurer's office, distributed each day, and each morning the names on the stubs are given credits as having paid their taxes. In some cases, however, according to Mr. Sutton, the banks returned uncollected receipts which if not carefully handled give the appearance of money having been collected which naturally would show a shortage in the treasurer's accounts as the original stubs have already been credited as so much cash.

Illegal collection of penalties for delinquent personal tax has been go-

TODAY'S TALKS

THE QUESTIONER

If you are constantly seeking new knowledge, you add to your ability to use what knowledge you have. And it is only the thing we use which belongs to us.

The questioner—or in better words, the seeker—is nearly always a man of sure and quick decision. Like the great artist whose fingers play with the keys or strings of his instrument, so does the man who is all the time drawing on something new, find himself growing abler and stronger, in mind and in character.

It is the slow mind which is closed to the atmosphere of new ideas and truth. In ignorance, one is bound as though he were a slave. But through seeking, searching, questioning do we come to know the truth—and become free and broad.

Be quick to question. But once the facts seem clear and reasonable, formulate your own ideas and opinions—and then defend them as a part of you.

Your mind is a sieve, as well as a retainer. You must thrash the false from the true—and then garner into your experience storehouse that which is rich in life and nourishment.

Be a questioner! Accept no man's opinion unless it is approved by your own best judgment and experience.

But be tolerant. The cocksure thinker loses most of his mental battles. And he rarely has the courage to acknowledge defeat.

The only way for you to know—and to know that you know—is to keep questioning all the time.

There is no thrill so heartening as that of learning something new. And the more you search and question, the more thrills, you get!

Keep learning. Inquire. Ask questions. Find out.

THE NEW GENERATION

JOAN AND MALCOLM FROST VISIT MARGARET CHAPTER 39.

Malcolm and Joan climbed atop the bus. They had much to talk about, and their interested young voices caused more than one to look at them with a sympathetic smile. Malcolm was in Harvard. He was only in New York for the weekend, but he had kept in touch with all the people Joan knew in the old home and so had plenty of interest to tell her.

Gloria Freeman and Clarence Tobin are engaged," he said.

"Really! I remember I used to call Clarence that 'smarty boy'. I suppose he'd be very different now."

"Not so very! He still thinks he is pretty smart—says things he thinks cute but which no one else cares to hear."

"But Gloria is going to marry him!"

"Yes, and Edna and Lonnie Carpenter are awfully chummy. Nothing settled I guess, but everyone seems to think it will be a match. Now tell me about yourself and your mother. Is she still Mrs. Hayden?"

"I'll tell the world she is!"

"I used to think that Mr. Forrester was awfully interested in her."

"He was, and—Precious little good it will do him. Here is where we get off," said Joan as the bus stopped with a lurch. "Come hurry, they don't stop long."

"It's awfully nice to see you, Malcolm the girl said as they walked the few steps to her mother's apartment. "And it's a lot nicer to see you. You haven't changed much Joan. I guess it is because you still wear your hair bobbed look different I guess."

"Everyone wears bobbed hair, even Mary Garden. It is so much more comfortable."

"And becoming—to some."

"This is where Mother lives. Won't she be surprised?"

Hannah opened the door to their ring, and Joan laid her finger on her lips, with a nod toward Malcolm, before she greeted her. Then she pushed Malcolm ahead into her mother's sitting room where Margaret was engaged in writing a note to Craig Forrester.

"Hello, Mumsie! See who's here!"

"Why Malcolm Frost!" Margaret knew him at once. "I am so glad to see you."

"And I you, Mrs. Hayden."

As he had told Joan, so now he had to tell Margaret the news and gossip of the old home town—of the older people as well as Joan's friends. Hannah had been captured by Joan, leaving Malcolm and her mother alone for a few minutes, and the odor of fresh cakes soon filled the apartment.

"He used to love them so, Hannah."

"But he's a grown man now, child."

"I'm grown up too, but I like them just as well as I ever did, so will he."

"All right, honey! They only take five minutes to whip up, and 20 minutes to bake. Will he be here that long?"

"Of course!"

"They are the same cakes you used to love, Malcolm!" Joan said when Hannah brought them in. "Hannah thought you'd be too grown up to want them, but I said you wouldn't!"

"You said something!" He smiled roughly as he helped himself. Then said to Mrs. Hayden: "May I have two? I used to eat five or six I remember."

"Eat five or six now if you want to," she replied, while old Hannah beamed.

They talked until late, then Malcolm invited Joan and Margaret to the theater.

"I hope you have no other engagements," he said.

"None that cannot be broken," Joan answered, "have we Mumsie?" She explained to Malcolm that if there was nothing going on Saturday night the village usually met at some studio and spent the evening.

Margaret made no reply. But she reached out and took up the note she had been writing to Craig Forrester accepting an invitation for the evening—one she received at a late hour because she had been out of town until that afternoon.

"What time shall you come for us?" she asked when he refused an invitation to remain for dinner because he had to dress.

"At 3 o'clock. Will you be here, Joan, or at your studio?"

"I'll be here, Malcolm. I always keep emergency clothes here."
